

Programme Overview

Day 1 – Tuesday, 16 May 2017
Official Opening
09:00-09:30	Welcome Remarks
09:30-10:00	Keynote Speech
Coffee Break
Uniting the Community
10:30-12:00	Regulators, industry and service providers all have different responsibilities; however, they all share a common objective of reducing the hazards of wildlife strikes to aircraft. This session will provide brief statements by CEOs of different stakeholders and a forum for exchanging the various points of view.
The Global Picture
12:00-13:00	Data on wildlife strikes help to better understand the dynamics of the wildlife strike problem. This session will deliver a 'where we are' on a global scale and provide statistical analysis of wildlife strikes. This reveals trends that will assist the community to recognize areas of concern to be addressed through various means, such as effective wildlife control programmes.
Lunch
Regulatory Framework
14:00-15:30	Wildlife strikes are an increasing safety and economic concern that have resulted in hundreds of fatalities and enormous annual financial losses to the aviation industry. This session will focus on strengthening the importance of the implementation of ICAO SARP requirements and guidance materials on wildlife control as well as defining areas where new standards need to be developed. CAAs will have the opportunity to present their own national regulatory framework and share their experiences and challenges.
Coffee Break
Regulatory Framework (cont.)
16:00-17:00	Wildlife strikes are an increasing safety and economic concern that have resulted in hundreds of fatalities and enormous annual financial losses to the aviation industry. This session will focus on strengthening the importance of the implementation of ICAO SARP requirements and guidance materials on wildlife control as well as defining areas where new standards need to be developed. CAAs will have the opportunity to present their own national regulatory framework and share their experiences and challenges. (cont.)
Welcome Reception
End of Day 1

